FROM THE DIRECTORS

Five Little Peppers is SCT's first try at a children's production. It was our intent that the cast not only receive the experiences of participating in a "play", but also a chance to develop skills in creativity, problem solving, imagination and self-expression. This was a very special and talented cast of young people to work with. We only hope they will leave this production with anticipation and readiness for the next play.

Marilyn Blake and Suzanne Dewberry, Directors

Community Education is pleased to assist the Starkville Community Theatre in the production of Five Little Peppers. The Starkville Community Theatre is quite an asset to this community; this is evident by activities like this. As Director of Community Education, I look forward to a continued association with the Starkville Community Theatre as we work to enhance community living here.

Cindy Ward, Director of Community Education
