The Director's Note

I pulled the Thesaurus off the book shelf to get a word or words to take the place of "neat." It's been a joy...it's been beautiful. I'm trying to describe this month I've been with these 27 children. I now truly appreciate the work and dedication of the adults involved on and off stage, but the children were super, marvelous, wonderful, glorious. Add those adjectives together and the word comes out neat-plus, and that's what they have been! This hour will go by quickly, so sit back and enjoy, but don't blink, or you might miss something.
