

Brian Allen Loden/SDN

Three old friends, tied by the memories, successes, failures and intrigues of years of life in their small town, are the main characters in Starkville Community Theatre's upcoming production of "The Exact Center of the Universe," a play written by Joan Vail Thorne.

Featured in the show are five SCT veterans, Marsha Williams as "Vada," Alice Carol Caldwell as "Marybell," Terry McDowell as "Enid," Marianné Ulmer as "Mary Anne," and relative SCT newcomer Lyle Tate as "Appleton."