Introducing our 2022-2023 SEASON

SEASON TICKETS (FOUR SHOWS) - $60 ■ ADD OUR SEASON EXTRA FOR $15

Into the Woods

Mid-October – This musical with music by Stephen Sondheim and a book by James Lapine intertwines the plots of several of the Brothers Grimm fairy tales, exploring the characters' wishes and the consequences of their actions. The show is directed by Gabe Smith, with musical direction by Jordan Durham and choreography by Jonette Wilburn.

Sanders Family Christmas

December 1-10 – Connie Ray's Christmas-themed sequel to Smoke on the Mountain (produced by SCT in the 2021-2022 season) finds the Sanders Family Singers returning to Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church in December 1941 for a final performance before one of the family members, son Dennis, leaves for military service in World War II. Pattye Archer will direct.

Terms of Endearment

February 16-25, 2023 – Adapted by Dan Gordon from the Pulitzer Prize-winning novel by Larry McMurtry and the Academy Award-winning 1983 film script by James Brooks, the play follows the relationship between Aurora Greenway and her daughter, Emma, over a 30-year period. Christopher Walrath will direct.

Suite Surrender

April 13-22, 2023 – Set in 1942, Michael McKeever's farce finds two feuding Hollywood divas booked into the same luxury suite at a Palm Beach hotel where both are to appear at a wartime benefit. Hilarity ensues as their assistants and the hotel staff try to keep the two actresses from seeing one another. Jo Durst directs.

SEASON EXTRA - Greater Tuna

May 9-13, 2023 – This comedy by Jason Williams, Ed Howard and Joe Sears is about the wacky inhabitants (men, women, children and animals) of Tuna, Texas – Texas' third smallest town – all played by two actors who change parts at breakneck speed. Thomas La Foe will direct.
